Portfolio Betting And How To Make It Pay - By Eddie Lloyd

I hope you guys managed to follow the “Another Winning System” from last Thursday’s article, as it found the winner in the 4.10 Cheltenham - Remiluc at a tasty 20/1! Sometimes, it’s best to keep things simple and when that “simple” finds winners at those prices, it’s hard to disagree!

If you missed last week’s article - Click Here To Read More

This week, I wanted to look at portfolio betting and why it’s essential to anyone wishing to make a profit from their betting. I’ll be looking for services to follow, staking plans and how best to manage the whole thing.

I trial a lot of tipsters and spend a heap of time looking and following the proofing on the Betfan proofing pages. You can view all of our services, here.

For the purposes of this article, we’re going to concentrate on a portfolio of 3 tipsters. They are -

The Judge

15 Point Plan

Value Wins

Let’s assume that we joined on the 1st January 2018 and have £1,000 as our total investment. The first thing we obviously need to do is to allow for the subscription costs. The total cost of joining all three services (on a monthly basis, it would be cheaper if you subscribed on a quarterly basis) is £171.62. A big outlay but manageable on a £1,000 bank.

We then need to look at how we manage our stakes. Looking through the proofing that we have available to us, we can work out our basic staking.

The Judge 26% Strike Rate

15 Point Plan 26% Strike Rate

Value Wins 35% Strike Rate

We use these strike rates to determine our stake size.

You'll see in the image below how the calculator has calculated the required stake and how much profit has been made -

SYSTEM NAME	POINTS PROFIT	STRIKE RATIO	BETS
The Judge	1.62	0.26	100			INFORMATION	EXPECTED LOSSES	15.2942288
							BANK REQUIRED	45.8826864
							BANK SIZE	1000
							REQUIRED STAKE	21.7947133
							OVERALL PROFIT	35.3074356

We now do this for the other two services -

SYSTEM NAME	POINTS PROFIT	STRIKE RATIO	BETS
15 Point Plan	23.57	0.26	100			INFORMATION	EXPECTED LOSSES	15.2942288
							BANK REQUIRED	45.8826864
							BANK SIZE	1000
							REQUIRED STAKE	21.7947133
							OVERALL PROFIT	513.701394

SYSTEM NAME	POINTS PROFIT	STRIKE RATIO	BETS
Value Wins	20.45	0.35	100			INFORMATION	EXPECTED LOSSES	10.6902340
							BANK REQUIRED	32.0707020
							BANK SIZE	1000
							REQUIRED STAKE	31.1811072
							OVERALL PROFIT	637.653642

You can download this calculator for free, here

So, as we come to end of the month, we can see that following the above three tipsters would have seen you more than double your bank after subs have been deducted.

The Judge made £35.31

The 15 Point Plan made £513.70

Value Wins made £637.65

After subs have been deducted our profit would have been £1,015.06.

You could take your original £1,000 back and play with the bookie's money, or you could change your bank and adjust the stakes accordingly.

Have a play around with various services and see what works for you. You've got the right tools and information to build your own successful portfolio, now!

Another Three Trainers To Lookout For This Coming Week Or So - By High Roller Racing

Last week we highlighted Robin Dickin, Lucy Wadham and Mick Easterby as trainers to look for during the coming days. They all produced winners but the highlight was Robin Dickin coming up with three winners during the week. Perhaps this weeks trainers to look for could perform just as well or better?

Henry Daly is going through a good spell and he is the punters 'friend' at the moment showing a profit of around £43 to a £1 level stake so far this season. Recent winners include Crucial Role and the very well backed Back To The Thatch. Henry's horse Head To The Stars won at Leicester in late 2016 and holds an entry at the same course on Wednesday... he could go well! Go West Young Man looks to me to have a chance on same card but possibly at a bigger price. He comes from same ownership so two singles and a small each way double could be rewarded? I would think we ignore Henry Daly at our peril.

Olly Murphy seems to have found a spell of good form and is making things happen recently. He has been in the winners enclosure with 4 winners in the last five days as I write. When this yard hits form the winners flow and flow so we shouldn't sit back and just watch them keep winning. Apart from those winners possibly winning again Olly has Flow With Eve who looks like winning and would have with a better jump at last obstacle... one to note. Weebill and Saucysioux could need close scrutiny paying to them too from this in form yard.

Keith Dalgleish is our third trainer to consider and Keith has his team in very good form. Three of Keith's horses have produced personal best performances in the last fortnight... these horses are Tough Remedy, Ray Purchase and Starplex all of whom have entries and all are capable of following up. Others to look for and consider from this yard are Jack Blane, Good Boy Alfie and Zoravan. Over the jumps Keith has an unrated hurdler making debut and Hardrock Davis could be up to the task. Check market support.

So take these trainers seriously in your quest for winners. You could also try my service High Roller Racing that's just getting down to form with recent big winner GUN RUNNER in the Pegasus World Cup returning EVENS... fabulous horse but a brilliant run. Join High Roller by following the link below... remember it's FREE to join and YOU ONLY PAY £10 WHEN THE HORSE WINS... why not just give it a go for a week and see if you like us?

Today's Sports Betting Preview - By Rick Elliott

Almost A Must Win Match For Liverpool

How on earth can you beat the best team in the league and champions-elect and then lose to the bottom two teams in the table who are prominent in the betting for relegation? That is the enigma of Liverpool and Jurgen Klopp. When Liverpool were sensational in the 4-3 win over Manchester City the German would have been odds-on to be given the Freedom of the City even though the major is a massive Everton fan. In less than two weeks the phone-ins are discussing the minimum requirement for Klopp to keep his job. It's not reached a situation where his job is on the line but defeat tonight at Huddersfield in the Premier League would not be well received by fans who after the City win thought Klopp was wonderful. Liverpool are now 13/5 with Betfair not to finish in the top four which could mean curtains for the manager.

Huddersfield made a decent start to their first season in the Premier League but results are now more in line with expectations and the size of the club's wage bill. Home form can be the key to avoiding an immediate return to the Championship but Huddersfield have not won in four fixtures on their own ground. Before losing at Swansea Liverpool won five and drew once over six fixtures on the road. Klopp's high intensity football may not be suited to English football because there is no mid-winter break like there is in Germany. The matches come thick and fast at this time of the year but class should tell which means LIVERPOOL should be backed at 1/3 with William Hill to beat Huddersfield tonight. The match kicks-off at 8pm and is live on BT Sport.

The Standout Racing Bet At Punchestown

There is no racing this evening because the four meetings in Britain and Ireland are all this afternoon. After a quick glance at the cards it seems like none of the 26 races have prize money of £10,000. That fact could explain why grassroots midweek racing is in decline. The sport is the second most watched in person after football but that is due to the quantity of fixtures. It's difficult to pick out a feature race today but on ratings one of the best horses in action is El Vasco at Punchestown (1.45pm). The top rated horse has a claimer on board which means a five pounds allowance. That concession can be key so EL VASCO is the standout racing bet at 4/1 with Ladbrokes.

Tuesday's Horses In Focus - By Unity Racing Investments

Last Tuesday we managed to highlight another big priced winner for our horse's in focus. That horse was AGE OF GLORY returned 14/1 sp. This is what we said...

“Wetherby 1:45 Handicap Hurdle (Class 5) 20f - There isn't much swaying us at Wetherby today the one race we quite like is this one and the horse we think will go close is AGE OF GLORY 10/1. The horse has the speed ratings and the figures in the book to go close today. Especially with the horse running from a very favourable mark.”

We only put out 3 pieces of info that day and we also went close with AMITY ISLAND as well just finishing a close 2nd and that is a horse to watch out for next time out he pulled clear of 3rd but just couldn't quite get to the winner. That was only the 5th run for the horse yet he showed a lot of promise and is improving all the time. Certainly, a winner waiting to happen.

So our horses in focus have been nailing in the winners it has been a really good run. We had a nice and welcome winner on the main service yesterday with ARGYLE 7/1 sp that leaves us just below breakeven for the month but we still have a few horses to go so we are still very hopeful of registering a profit.

Today's Horses In Focus

Southwell 2:15 Handicap (Class 5) 6f - I'm going to give an each way chance here to ALFONSO MANANA at 16/1. It's his first try on Fibre sand and there is no telling if it will suit but I think it won't be too much of a problem. The horse is ready to win and is at his optimum trip today. Race fit and going off a handy mark this horse is way too big on price to be ignored especially from a stable bursting into form.

Southwell 3:25 Handicap (Class 6) 7f - ESSENTIAL will like being brought back to 7 furlongs and should have a pretty sound chance here with the very talented Hollie Doyle on board. The horse has shown a liking for this surface and that is a big part of it 14/1 in places looks like a bit of value. JUSTICE PLEASING 12/1 according to our figures is ready to win after showing steady improvement in the last 3-4 runs. I wouldn't put you off that one with Jack Blaine the other to make the frame.

Newcastle 2:30 Handicap Chase (Class 3) 23f - CENTRAL FLAME ran really well over course and distance last time and posted a very respectable speed rating. The horse that finished just behind him went really close last time in another race. We backed the horse that day too. So we know the form is strong. If he can keep up at the start he must be a big player today and at 8/1 looks a bargain for this well handicapped horse.
