Three Trainers In Very Good Form

By High Roller Racing

DAN SKELTON

Has his team in very good form. He has started the season well with twice as many winners than any other trainer. Dan is also £200,000 in front of the nearest in the money stakes so it's a great start. Let's make the best of his horses whilst in good form. But it will be difficult to keep up these margins as the trainers with really top horses unleash them over next month or two. Dan near to hand could hit gold with Get Ready Freddy, Shrubland, Cobra de Mai, Hestina and Knight in Dubai... it could be a bumper Skelton week... AGAIN! Keep a watch on the entries this week.

IAN WILLIAMS

Dual purpose trainer Ian Williams is another trainer in form on the Flat and over Jumps. Recent winners were in a flat race at Wolverhampton and a mares hurdle at Warwick. Ian has The Statesman entered a few times this week and this horse looks able to notch another win after a double in May on the Flat. Over jumps Hernandez, Speedo Boy and Banditry look capable of going close in the coming week or so.

DAVID SIMCOCK

David's outfit is still in good form. Breton Rock and Lightening Spear were Group Race winners for the stable in August so September was a hard act to follow but the horses ran terrifically in September and show no sign of stopping. Sheikzayedroad was third in the Doncaster Cup. In the next couple of weeks the horses we think could run well are 2yo Sharshampla dropped in class after sixth in Newbury listed race. Marine One, Free Forum and Te Koop could also go well for David. He should be looked at very seriously.

On a bright note my service High Roller Racing finished second in the WIN monthly table with 91 points. Thank you to existing followers who won £910 to a £10 per point stake or £9100 to a £100 per point stake. Thank you followers.

Winners this week were...

Emaraaty	WON Evens
Renneti	WON Evens
Maygold	WON 4/1
Quatrieme Ami	WON 4/1
Elarqam	WON 2/1
Ambre Des Mais	WON 5/2
Enable	WON 11/10

I am only allowed to tip a maximum of one horse per day... my service is free to join and you only pay if the horse wins... what could be fairer than that? Join us and come over to a TEAM IN FORM.

England Always Beat Teams Like Slovenia By Rick Elliott

There is a raft of World Cup qualifiers this week including England's inevitable win against Slovenia on Thursday at Wembley. England always win matches of this nature without racking up a cricket score and qualify for major tournaments with ease. Once the serious action begins things go pear-shaped especially with civil servants managing the team. Gareth Southgate can direct his national team to beat Slovenia 2-0 and that outcome can be backed at 19/4 with Ladbrokes, but not win the World Cup.

Due to the international break there are no fixtures in the Premier League or Champions League this week. In fact there are no matches live on TV this evening which is as rare as England excelling at a major tournament. Fear not though because there is a healthy schedule of fixtures in FA Cup qualifying and the England EFL Trophy. The latter brings together sides from outside the top two divisions and under 21 representatives from the bigger clubs. The AFC Wimbledon first team can beat the Tottenham youngsters tonight and that is a standout bet at 6/5 with bet365.

In racing the news is still all about Enable and that wonderful performance in the Arc. It's a case of after the Lord Mayor's Show with quantity over quality and six meetings in Britain and Ireland. Despite the debacle of losing the Western Meeting due to a waterlogged area of the track Ayr races today with a card dominated by trappy handicaps. Brandon Castle is clear top rated in the 4pm race and can handle another hike in the weights. The horse has won four of his last five starts and can prevail at 5/4 with William Hill today.

Darts is a hugely popular betting sport and the arenas are always full of fans in fancy dress. The walk-ons set the atmosphere and it all looks a lot of fun. However, the sport does provide many decent betting opportunities and one stands out in the World Grand Prix. Dave Chisnall can cover the handicap of one and a half sets against Robert Thornton and that option is 4/6 with bet365.

Tuesdays Horses In Focus By Unity Racing Investments

Welcome to Unity Racing Investments Horses in Focus. The aim of this column is to throw up a good few winners for our followers. A fantastic September has seen us take a giant stride forward. It has pretty much paid me for the whole year and more. In fact it's over 4 times my annual salary from when I had a normal job.

It didn't happen overnight for me though. I started small and built it up over several years. The Patience and unwavering dedication to finding a winning system that worked and would carry on working for years to come pretty much took over my life.

The hardest thing is going through flat periods or drawdowns that could sometimes take several months and they make you question everything that has gone before. It would be easy to change something or to do something different to chase those winners. That would only lead to further failure. So the hardest thing to do is the easiest thing as well do nothing carry on every day the same and believe it will always head in the upward direction in the long term. That is what we do and that is why our long term chart shows nothing but growth. Long, Steady growth.

We are ready for more now... Christmas is coming and the jump season which we love. Our systems and info work year round and December last year was our best month with well over 100 points from 1 point bets so now is a really good time to join us.

Also I am going to make more of an effort to start writing a message along with the bets. I am pushed for time and do write but I'm a modest guy I have no ego to stroke so I find it hard to big myself up after a big winner.

So from tomorrow there will be a short message sent with every bet explaining the selection process and keeping you guys up to date with what is happening in my life and the lives of the contacts we have. Just another way of giving something back to our members.

Ok let's find some winners...

Ayr 2:20 Handicap (Class 6) 8f - HERE IN THE DARK is just a little too short for me at 2/1. Probably the best piece of recent form but I could only have the horse down as a save. The one I quite like here is RETIREMENT PROJECT 16/1 by Namid this horse should make a better 3 yo plus but he will also like the step up to a mile and this is a much easier race than anything contested before. The horse has been run like a project horse so it's one for the note book.

Ayr 4:30 Handicap (Class 3) 8f - We have tried to back JAYKAY the last twice only for the meeting to be abandoned. The horse has a sound chance today and the price of 4/1 is just big enough to take a chance.

Kempton 5:40 Handicap (Class 7) 5f - POPSILCA 9/2 for Mick Quinn who has is small team in fairly good nick right now. He says they are all bouncing at home. He runs 4 horses this week and they all have a chance. This is the first and should get the ball rolling. Connections are on today.

Kempton 7:40 Handicap (Class 4) 6f - LORD COOPER 14/1 doesn't have many friends in the market but he is coming from a stable who are coming in to form and he has the best lto speed rating to his name and available even bigger on the exchange. I quite like this bet the value is exceptionally good.

This Weeks Big Golf Tournament By Bet Fairway

This week sees one of the most popular Tournaments of the whole year The Dunhill Links.

When I hear the words Pro/Celebrity event I usually start to look at what's on the other channels even soap operas come into the reckoning but this event if anything is enhanced by the celebrity aspect.

American Film stars like Samuel Jackson are paired with pros for three rounds then unceremoniously kicked out for the last round when money is at stake. It contained perhaps the most brilliant pairing in pro celebrity history with cult American film actor Dennis Hopper paired with a young Ian Poulter with neither of them having a clue who the other one was.

This is a very important and valuable event with players spread across St Andrews, Carnoustie and the much easier and newer Kingsbarns. After a round at each the cut is made and the top players slug it out for a second round at the home of golf St Andrews.

So the first piece of betting logic is that half the tournament takes place at one course so the format is misleading and players who like the Old Lady St Andrews have a massive advantage. The other key point is Kingsbarns is much easier than the other two so if a player plays there on day 3 he may be in false position on the leaderboard itself in terms of winning outright.

One player who has had a shocker of a year is dual Major Champion Martin Kaymer but there are two good reasons to believe that might change this week. Firstly he played very well at the British Masters where his swing looked nearly back to his best. Secondly he is a maestro round St Andrews and has been described as having the perfect game for it.

Kaymer can get his season back on track by winning this and get our new "Your BetFan Sport Fix" column off to a flyer!
