Haggas Is Hot With No Sign of Meltdow - By High Roller Racing

William Haggas still has his team in splendid form and shows no signs of stopping in the search for producing winners. Winners don't just happen but William's team have been producing winners all season long. Please note though we talk about a trainer but remember he or she is only as good as the quality of animal and quality of staff in their yard... it's the trainers name but with so many horses and staff needed to be at the top of their game day after day to produce winners in the trainers name. In the coming days William has Eyelool entered at Ripon a track the trainer does well at.

When guys like William take to the North then take notice! Island of Life at Bath also interests me a lot. Others I have seen entered which interest me are Hateel, Astronaut(debut), Swiss Air and Extra Large. Pay very careful attention to this red hot yards entries and runners.

Julie Camacho seems to be in the best form of her career as she only needs one winner to equal last seasons total of winners from the yard.

It's when trainers hit spells of form like Julie we must sit up and take notice. In the coming days she has two entries I am considering carefully. Pack Ecostar ran promisingly on debut for Julie at Haydock recently. He is entered at Catterick on Wednesday over five furlongs and could go very well as Julie can improve a young horse from debut to its second run. I Know How won on debut this season and ran creditably at Pontefract next time out he has an entry at Beverley which if declared could be of interest. The yard has Swaheen entered at Thirsk and with the yard in good form it could be a decent price horse to follow as Swaheen is 10lbs below his last winning handicap mark. Don't completely ignore Julie in her current form.

Dr Richard Newland... to me The 'Good' Doctor... is the National Hunt trainer to consider at the moment. As I write this article he has saddled SIX winners from his last TEN runners. Last season at this time of year he had a higher strike rate so we can still lookout for his runners. Horses that interest me from the yard are Inessa, Adams Park and Cotton Club. All three could win again this week. I strongly suggest that The 'Good' Doctor is added to your list of trainers to consider for summer jumping fixtures. He does very well with decent horses other trainers couldn't get to win. Keep the lookout for this team.

Tuesday's Horses In Focus - By Unity Racing Investments

We have a horse for the notebooks today! It is going to run in the 14:20 Chelmsford and I must be mad as the horse is currently available at 150/1 with several firms.

The horse is COLD HARBOUR. He ran much too green on debut but has apparently come on at home and I'm told that the horse needs time but will win a race. We are expecting a much better run today although we aren't bullish about the win the price has meant we can have a small interest and put it in the note book for the future... it's not the strongest of maidens and according to our ratings nothing in the race has run that fast. Not even the kind odds on favourite.

The same connections also run HARBOUR STORM 10/1 in the 4:20 at Chelmsford again another horse with a chance of making the frame. They also have in the same colours a new comer going in the 2:50 at Chelmsford BLACKDOWN BOY at 50/1 this is a horse with a future but is still quite lightly framed and is expected to mature in another year. Has shown bits and pieces at home though.

You just never know if today could be magical for connections and it's certainly jackpot style odds if it does come off it's around 43,000/1 for the treble.

I think i'll have an each way trixie but understanding these horses are for the future.
